

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

February 25, 2000 LB 652

SENATOR THOMPSON: No.

SENATOR JENSEN: So this would be federal dollars then that we could...

SENATOR THOMPSON: Yes.

SENATOR JENSEN: ...tap into. Okay, I think. All right, I'll digest this a little further.

SENATOR THOMPSON: I know this...I'm feeling better because Senator Raikes was ahead of me today, but I...(laugh) we didn't mean to go back to back probably on these. It is complicated and I'd be happy to answer any more questions people have.

SENATOR JENSEN: All right. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Jensen. Those wishing to speak on the advancement of LB 652 are Senator Thompson, Senator Chambers, and Senator Landis. Senator Thompson.

SENATOR THOMPSON: Okay, I'm going to run back through this. What I stated the last time we talked on the bill was there weren't any costs in this year's budget but there would be costs in the future because the state would be picking up these costs and also the costs of transferring the secure facility, and that's probably where I lost some people in the discussion last time so I apologize for that. But there will be an A bill which will reflect in the second year what these costs will be to the state. In this year's budget nothing takes effect this year. And, Senator Chambers, if you have questions I'll just yield my time to you, or if you want to make a statement, since you were so kind to give me some time earlier.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Chambers, about four minutes left.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Madam...I meant, Mr. President. Thank you, Senator Thompson. In order to recoup and regather myself, I move that we adjourn until February 26th at 9:00 a.m.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Mr. Clerk, do you have items for the record,
